AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS

(From the United States Census Report)

Maine has a total land area of 29,895 square miles, of which 9,844 square miles, or 32.9% are included in farms. The surface consists of two great slopes, the northern and the southern. The northern slope, comprising about one-third of the total area is drained by the St. John river and its tributaries, the southern slope by numerous streams which flow into the Atlantic. The broad, flat divide which separates the two slopes serves as a natural reservoir, most of the rivers of the state having their sources in the large lakes of this region. Some of the lakes have outlets on both sides of the watershed.

The surface of a large part of the state is rugged and broken. The soil of the river valleys is very productive, but in the mountainous regions and along the sea coast it is for the most part sterile. The Aroostook Valley, which comprises the largest area of fertile farming land in New England, has a deep, porous, yellow loam, especially adapted to the growing of fruits and vegetables. This section has developed remarkably during the last decade.

local stockholders.
- 1903—May 3, Kennebunk's most destructive fire. Shoe shop, grist-mill, Parsons' Block, Calvin Mill, the "Old Corner Grocery," completely destroyed.

SETTLERS

William Larrabee, John Look, Thomas Wormwood and perhaps one or two others began the first permanent settlement in 1718, on the Mousam river. John Webber built a house in 1721 and Richard Boothby another about the same time. Ephraim Poke and Nathaniel Spinney also lived between Larrabee's and the sea. In 1720, the following men settled here from the North of Ireland: Thomas Boothby, Henry Boothby, Wm. Jepson, Andrew and George Simonton, Thomas Gilpatrick, Robert Page, John Ross and Byrce McLellan. Edward Evans, Ebenezer Bayridge, Nathan Morrison (commander), lived within Larrabee's garrison and Samuel and Anthony Littlefield just without, all in log houses. John Storer rebuilt the old mill in 1730. Thomas Cousins, Jedediah Wakefield, John Wakefield, Jr., and Ichabod Cousins were living near Littlefield's Mills, in 1750. On the western side of the Kennebunk river were Richard Kimball, Nathaniel and Thomas Kimball, Samuel Shackley and John Gilpatrick, all near the bridge, at Littlefield's Mills. John Butland, John Freeze, Samuel Emmons and Thos. Wormwood, Jr., had joined the settlement on the Mousam river before 1750. Stephen, son of William Larrabee, was also a leading man. Samuel Sawyer was then living on Great Hill. John, James and Nathaniel Wakefield and Stephen Titcomb, were at the Landing; Jesse Towne lived just below the Landing; and John Mitchell and Stephen Harding towards the sea. Jonathan Taylor, John Maddox and Richard Thompson were on the Alewife road. At the time Kennebunk was erected a separate parish, 1750, there were about thirty-two families here.

Census-1905

The population of the Towns of Kennebunk and Wells has been arranged in families where that arrangement has been possible. In these families, in addition to the resident living members, the names of the non-resident members are included. It should be borne in mind that this plan does not include the names of all former residents of this town, as the names of the non-residents appear only when one or both of the parents are still living in the town. After the name of each non-resident will be found the present address, when such address has been given to us. Non-residents are indicated by the (*).

When a daughter in a family has married, her name taken in marriage appears after her given name in parenthesis, the name preceded by a small m, thus: (m).

Following the names of the population is the occupations. To designate these we have used the more common abbreviations and contractions, as follows: Farmer—far; carpenter—car; railroad service—R R ser; student, a member of an advanced institution of learning—stu; pupil, a member of a lower grade of schools (including all who have reached the age of five years)—pl; housework—ho; laborer—lab; physician and surgeon—phy & sur; clergyman—clerg; merchant—mer; teacher—tr; blacksmith—blk; clerk—cl; book-keeper—bk kpr; lawyer—law; mechanic—mech; machinist—mach; engineer—eng; maker—mkr; worker—wkr; work—wk; shoe shop work—shoe op; cotton or woolen mill operatives—mill op; weaver—weav; spinner—spin; electrician—elec; painter—ptr; carriage work—car wk; dress maker—dr mkr; insurance—ins; traveling salesman, or commercial traveler—sales, or coml trav; music teacher—mus tr; teamster—team; general work—geulwk; mariner—mar; employ—emp; retired—retd.

This census was taken expressly for this work during the fall of 1905, by Messrs. Holt and Lawton.

History of Wells

LEADING EVENTS

- 1641—Thomas Gorges, deputy Gov. of Maine and Mayor of Georgeana (York) was granted by Sir Ferdinando Gorges (first proprietor), 5,000 acres of land for a barony, with full power to divide the same into manors and lordships. He chose the tract near the Ogunquit, in the southwestern part of the present town of Wells.
- 1643—Part of above tract conveyed to Rev. John Wheelright, April 19, he having arrived here with others from Exeter, N. H., two or more years earlier.
- 1653—Wells incorporated "a township of itself." Henry Boad, Ezekiel Knight, John Wadleigh and John Gooch appointed selectmen, Joseph Bowles, clerk of the writs (town clerk). About twenty-five families in town.
- 1676—Terrible Indian ravages begin in Wells.
- 1692—Joseph Storer's garrison house attacked by 500 French and Indians and a fearful two-days battle ensued. Fort manned by 15 soldiers under Capt. Converse. Attack abandoned after the death of Labrocree, commander of the attacking force.
- 1713—Indian wars cease for ten years, many inhabitants having been murdered, houses burned, farms laid waste and cattle killed.

1716—Richard Martin employed as the first schoolmaster in Wells. Sometime preacher in town.

1745—Louisbourg expedition: one-third of all able-bodied men in Wells enlisted.
